FINANCE SECRETARIAT

NOTIFICATION.

Bangalore, dated the 26th—31st October 1972.

G. S. R. 4 .—In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (2) of Article 283 of the Constitution of India, the Governor of Mysore hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Mysore Treasury Code, 1963, Volume 1 namely,—

1. Title.—These rules may be called the Mysore Treasury Code (Fifth Amendment) Rules, 1972.

2. Amendment to Article 206 (P-130-131).—

Substitute the following for Article 206 and the Notes thereunder,—

"206 (1) Unless the Government by general or special orders direct otherwise, a pension remaining undrawn for more than a year shall cease to be payable by the disbursing officer and the Pension Payment Order must be returned to the Accountant General as provided in Article 208 If the pensioner afterwards appears or a claim is presented on his behalf, the disbursing officer may make the payment but the arrears can bepaid:

(i) if the amount in arrears does not exceed Rs. 2,500 or with the previous sanction of the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the pension payment office is located, if it exceeds Rs. 2,500 but does not exceed Rs. 5,000, provided that in both cases the arrears are not to be paid for the first time;

(ii) in all other cases with the sanction of the authority by whom the pension was sanctioned:

Provided that if in any case, a pension remains undrawn for three years in the case of a service pension or six years in the case of a political pension, it cannot be paid without the authority of the Accountant General.

Note—1: If the suspension of payment is attributed to error or neglect by any Government Officer, the Accountant General may direct payment of the arrears on his own authority.

Note—2: The duty of returning the Disbursing Officers halves of Pension Payment Orders when pension is not drawn for more than one year, on death of pensioner, etc., will rest on the treasury actually making the payment. Such communication from sub-treasuries should always be addressed through the District Treasury Officer.

(2) A gratuity payment order shall remain in force for one year only and no such order shall be retained in a disbursing office if payment has not been made on it within a year of its issue".
